DISTRIBUTION OF HOLY COMMUNION

Our hope is that you feel welcome at the Lord's Table. We welcome all baptized Christians who proclaim with us the crucified and risen Christ's real presence as he gives us his body and blood as food and drink. Grape juice and gluten free wafers are also available, please let the Communion assistants know of this dietary preference. The pastor also offers a pastoral blessing at the Communion Rail for those who do not wish to receive Communion.

INDIVIDUAL PRAYER AND HEALING

Pastor Charlie will offer individual prayer at the communion rail, with anointing and laying of hands for healing for those who desire it, 20 minutes before each Sunday service.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray. A brief silence is kept before the prayer.

Almighty God, your Son Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life. Give us grace to love one another, to follow in the way of his commandments, and to share his risen life with all the world, for he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

AFFIRMATION OF CHRISTIAN VOCATION FOR MOTHERS DAY

Dear Christian friends: Baptized into the priesthood of Christ, we are all called by the Holy Spirit to offer ourselves to the Lord of all creation in thanksgiving for all that God has done and continues to do for us.

It is our privilege to affirm this day those who are endeavoring to carry out their Christian vocation in the world as mothers. Motherhood is a gift of God, the author of all life, who commands that mothers be honored for their work. The gift of motherhood is also a divine responsibility that each mother carries out by raising her children in the knowledge and love of the Lord.

The apostle Paul wrote to Timothy: "I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice, and now I am sure lives in you." (2 Tim. 1:2)

Martin Luther wrote: "Truly mothers and fathers are apostles, bishops and priests to their children, for it is they who make them acquainted with the Gospel." (The Estate of Marriage, 1522)

The presiding minister addresses those affirming their vocation:

Sisters in Christ, God has called you to the high and holy office of motherhood. Will you continue to serve with all your heart as a witness to Christ and a living example of the faith in your family?

I will, and I ask God to help me.

The presiding minister addresses the congregation:

Brothers and sisters in Christ, will you support these your sisters with your prayers, and work with them to pass on the faith to all our children?

We will, and we ask God to help us.

Let us pray. Almighty God, we thank you for our mothers, living and dead, through whom we have come to experience your steadfast love for us. Strengthen them with your Holy Spirit so that they may faithfully and effectively carry out the ministry you have entrusted to them. Bless foster mothers, adoptive mothers, godmothers, grandmothers and all to whom you have entrusted the care of children. Comfort with the sure and certain hope of resurrection life those who have lost their mothers, and mothers who have lost their children. Grant hope and encouragement to those who struggle to conceive. Keep us in your motherly care until we are all reunited in the marriage feast of heaven. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

FIRST READING

Acts 7:55-60

⁵⁵Filled with the Holy Spirit, [Stephen] gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. ⁵⁶“Look,” he said, “I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!” ⁵⁷But they covered their ears, and with a loud shout all rushed together against him. ⁵⁸Then they dragged him out of the city and began to stone him; and the witnesses laid their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul. ⁵⁹While they were stoning Stephen, he prayed, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.” ⁶⁰Then he knelt down and cried out in a loud voice, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” When he had said this, he died. The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Psalms 31:1-5, 15-16

¹In you, O LORD, have I taken refuge; let me never be put to shame; deliver me in your righteousness.

²Incline your ear to me; make haste to deliver me.

³Be my strong rock, a castle to keep me safe, for you are my crag and my stronghold; for the sake of your name, lead me and guide me.

⁴Take me out of the net that they have secretly set for me, for you are my tower of strength.

⁵Into your hands I commend my spirit, for you have redeemed me, O LORD, God of truth.

¹⁵My times are in your hand; rescue me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.

¹⁶Let your face shine upon your servant; save me in your steadfast love.”

SECOND READING

1 Peter 2:2-10

²Like newborn infants, long for the pure, spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow into salvation—³if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.

⁴Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God’s sight, and ⁵like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. ⁶For it stands in scripture: “See, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious; and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.” ⁷To you then who believe, he is precious; but for those who do not believe, “The stone that the builders rejected has become the very head of the corner,” ⁸ and “A stone that makes them stumble, and a rock that makes them fall.” They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

⁹But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

¹⁰Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

John 14:1-14

The holy gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

[Jesus said to the disciples:] ¹“Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. ²In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? ³And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. ⁴And you know the way to the place where I am going.” ⁵Thomas said to him, “Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?” ⁶Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. ⁷If you know me, you will know my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him.”

⁸Philip said to him, “Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.” ⁹Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? ¹⁰Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. ¹¹Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. ¹²Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. ¹³I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.”

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Also, thank you to the ladies of the church who provided the delicious luncheon following the funeral service and to each member of the congregation who helped Pat make Immanuel her home congregation. God bless each and all of you.

If you are away that weekend, drop your change off the weekend before, or at the office during the week.

On Sunday, May 28th, we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension, the last Sunday of the Easter season. Tradition designates that Mount Olivet, near the town of Bethany, was the place where Jesus ascended into the clouds. Ascension Day occurs 40 days after Easter Sunday (actual day Thursday, May 25). Take a moment and enjoy the beauty of our 'Ascension' stained glass window to the right of the choir loft.
