INDIVIDUAL PRAYER AND HEALING

Pastor Charlie will offer individual prayer at the communion rail, with anointing and laying of hands for healing for those who desire it, 20 minutes before each Sunday service.

DISTRIBUTION OF HOLY COMMUNION

Our hope is that you feel welcome at the Lord's Table. We welcome all baptized Christians who proclaim with us the crucified and risen Christ's real presence as he gives us his body and blood as food and drink. Grape juice and gluten free wafers are also available, please let the Communion assistants know of this dietary preference. The pastor also offers a pastoral blessing at the Communion Rail for those who do not wish to receive Communion.

HARVEST HOME LITANY

God of harvest, gardener supreme, you place us at your center and feed us.

We thank you, Lord.

God of harvest, we praise you for the return of planting and harvest seasons, the rain from heaven and the sun to warm the soil.

We thank you, Lord.

God of harvest, we thank you for crowning the fields with your blessings and enabling us once more to gather in the fruits from our labor.

We thank you, Lord.

God of harvest, we present to you now our harvest for those who are hungry. Allow all those in need of your abundant love and care a seat at your table. We thank you, Lord.

God of harvest, feed us, prune us and harvest us that our lives might bring glory to you always, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

PRAAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray. A brief silence is kept before the prayer.

Almighty and eternal God, you show perpetual lovingkindness to us your servants. Because we cannot rely on our own abilities, grant us your merciful judgment, and train us to embody the generosity of your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

FIRST READING

Jonah 3:10--4:11

¹⁰When God saw what [the people of Ninevah] did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

^{4:1}But this was very displeasing to Jonah, and he became angry. ²He prayed to the LORD and said, "O LORD! Is not this what I said while I was still in my own country? That is why I fled to Tarshish at the beginning; for I knew that you are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and ready to relent from punishing. ³And now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live." ⁴And the LORD said, "Is it right for you to be angry?" ⁵Then Jonah went out of the city and sat down east of the city, and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, waiting to see what would become of the city.

⁶The LORD God appointed a bush, and made it come up over Jonah, to give shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort; so Jonah was very happy about the bush. ⁷But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the bush, so that it withered. ⁸When the sun rose, God prepared a sultry east wind, and the sun beat down on the head of Jonah so that he was faint and asked that he might die. He said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”

⁹But God said to Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry about the bush?” And he said, “Yes, angry enough to die.” ¹⁰Then the LORD said, “You are concerned about the bush, for which you did not labor and which you did not grow; it came into being in a night and perished in a night. ¹¹And should I not be concerned about Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand persons who do not know their right hand from their left, and also many animals?”

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Psalm 145:1-8

¹I will exalt you, my God and king,
and bless your name forever and ever.

²Every day will I bless you and praise your name forever and ever.

³Great is the LORD and greatly to be praised!
There is no end to your greatness.

⁴One generation shall praise your works to another and shall declare your power.

⁵I will speak of the glorious splendor of your majesty and all your marvelous works.

⁶They shall tell of the might of your wondrous acts, and I will recount your greatness.

⁷They shall publish the remembrance of your great goodness;
they shall sing joyfully of your righteousness.

⁸The LORD is gracious and full of compassion,
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

SECOND READING

Philippians 1:21-30

²¹For to me, living is Christ and dying is gain. ²²If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me; and I do not know which I prefer. ²³I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; ²⁴but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you.

²⁵Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, ²⁶so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again.

²⁷Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, ²⁸and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing. ²⁹For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well—

³⁰since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Matthew 20:1-16

The holy gospel according to Matthew.

Glory to you, O Lord.

[Jesus said to the disciples:] ¹“The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. ²After agreeing with the laborers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. ³When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace; ⁴and he said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.’ So they went. ⁵When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same. ⁶And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, ‘Why are you standing here idle all day?’ ⁷They said to him, ‘Because no one has hired us.’ He said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard.’ ⁸When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, ‘Call the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.’ ⁹When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. ¹⁰Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. ¹¹And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, ¹²saying, ‘These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.’ ¹³But he replied to one of them, ‘Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? ¹⁴Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. ¹⁵Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?’ ¹⁶So the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

The Community Event with Trinity last weekend was wonderful. We were blessed with beautiful weather. We had 50 vendors with crafts and yard sale items. We made over $1,400!

Thank you to everyone that helped!
So many people, in so many different ways. Thank you!

TODAY is our Annual Harvest Home Celebration. Please participate, during the service, by helping us 'Fill Our Baskets' for NESAP. Donations of canned and boxed food AND monetary donations are greatly welcomed! Last year, Immanuel donated over 120 items to NESAP's Food Pantry! Help make this another bountiful harvest year for those less fortunate in the Carroll County community. Thank you!

AN OLD-FASHIONED HYMN SING WEEKEND

Our 9th Annual Old-Fashioned Hymn Sing will be held in two weeks on October 7th-8th. During both services, many older, but familiar hymns will be sung. The Luther Men will provide the special music at the Sunday Service. Please invite your family and friends to attend a very special Hymn Sing and enjoy hearing and singing those long-loved songs of yesteryear!

COMING OCTOBER 8: MINISTRY FAIR

Our two big goals from the congregational survey are to improve communication within and outside the congregation and to increase involvement by all our members in the church's ministries.

The Ministry Fair during the coffee hour on Sunday, October 8, will help all our members to learn about the full range of ministries and activities at Immanuel and how they can get involved. Our congregational ministries, including Christian Education and Youth, Worship and Music, Stephen Ministry, Mutual Ministry, Fellowship, Social Ministry, Keeping in Touch (visitation ministry), Faith Health Network (hospital ministry) and more will have displays describing their activities and opportunities for people to serve. You can visit the displays, speak to a representative, and sign up to participate in whatever ways best fit your individual abilities and interests.

The Ministry Fair is a great way to accomplish our two big goals. Please mark your calendars and join us in the Social Hall on Sunday, October 8!

We Need Socks!!

Socks are one the most needed items in homeless shelters, but also one of the least donated. We will be holding a Sock Drive the month of October to benefit the less fortunate in our community.

A box will be set up in the Narthex October 1st to collect new sock donations. If you have any questions please contact Amanda Yingling: 717-880-5215, mandymae1210@gmail.com.

Martin Luther Exhibit The Walter's Art Museum in Baltimore has an exhibit on display from now through the end of October titled, "Uncertain Times: Martin Luther's Remedies for the Soul". The exhibit focuses on the ways in which Martin Luther comforted the distressed souls of his contemporaries by approaching them as a father, a husband and a friend, rather than as a priest or theologian. (DE-MD Synod E-Letter)

Project Linus National is collecting handmade blankets to help the families impacted by Hurricane Harvey in Texas, and Hurricane Irma in Florida.

Carroll County is a chapter of the national Project Linus and is 100% non-profit, 100% volunteer. Their purpose is to provide a "handmade hug" in the way of a security blanket to children who are seriously ill, traumatized, or otherwise in need. The local Carroll County chapter set a goal to send 1,000 blankets to the TX and FL areas.

Immanuel's Workday Group completed 7 quilts while in the Social Hall on Monday. The group is also working on projects at home. You can add to our numbers - if you have any quilts that you would like to donate, then bring to church as soon as possible. Any questions, please contact Audrey Shaffer.

GIVE TO HURRICANE RELIEF

During the past weeks the U.S. and the Caribbean have been struck by multiple devastating hurricanes, most especially Harvey in Texas and Louisiana and Irma in the Caribbean and Florida. More recently, Hurricane Maria has caused major damage to Dominque and Puerto Rico.

As a church, we're standing by our neighbors who have been affected as they begin the long road to recovery. Lutheran Disaster Response's affiliates are collaborating with community leaders and government officials to respond. Please give now to support this response.

You can give to hurricane relief through Lutheran Disaster Response (www.ldr.org) or double your gift if you are a Thrivent member (www.thrivent.com/making-a-difference/living-generously/disaster-response).

You can also give by cash or check made out to Immanuel Lutheran Church and placed in an appropriately marked pew envelope.

To give to the hurricane response where funds are needed most, write "Hurricanes" on your envelope. To give directly to relief efforts for Hurricane Irma, write "Irma" on your envelope.

Your gifts will be used entirely (100 percent) for direct response. No matter how much you give financially, please keep all those affected in your prayers. When we learn of opportunities to send mission teams to participate in relief and recovery efforts, we will let you know.

The Lutheran Church Men of the Westminster Conference will hold their Fall Dinner Meeting on Mon, Oct 30th at Trinity Lutheran Church (38 West Baltimore St Taneytown 21787). The ladies of the church will serve a family-style dinner at 6:30pm. A free-will offering received for the meal with at least $12.00 expected. Pastor Cris Frigm will lead a short devotion and hymn sing along with their new director of music. Sign up or contact church office. RSVP no later than Sunday morning, Oct 22.

Jamie Rooney is planning a Multi/Vendor shopping event at Immanuel from 6 to 9pm for the Manchester Area Black Friday Event on Nov 24th. There will be a raffle, 10 vendors selling items such as hand painted signs, embroidered towels, Scentsy, Thirty-One, Perfectly Post and more! We will be handing out cookies and cocoa for shoppers.

If anyone is interested in volunteering please contact Jamie Rooney at 443-536-3541 or jamielr126@gmail.com.
