INDIVIDUAL PRAYER AND HEALING:

Pastor Charlie offers individual prayer at the communion rail, with anointing and laying of hands for healing for those who desire it, 20 minutes before each service.

DISTRIBUTION OF HOLY COMMUNION:

Our hope is that you feel welcome at the Lord's Table. We welcome all baptized Christians who proclaim with us the crucified and risen Christ's real presence as he gives us his body and blood as food and drink. Grape juice and gluten free wafers are also available, please let the Communion assistants know of this dietary preference. The pastor also offers a pastoral blessing at the Communion Rail for those who do not wish to receive Communion.

FAMILIES WITH YOUNG CHILDREN: We are glad you are here!

- Activity bags are in back to help little ones keep themselves occupied.
- The Oak Tree Room and the Pre-School Room are available for nursing mothers and others with small children and allow you to listen to the service.
- Baby Sunday School is offered for little ones accompanied by an adult most Sundays during worship (after children's sermon and return before Communion).

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray. A brief silence is kept before the prayer.

Stir up our hearts, Lord God, to prepare the way of your only Son. By his coming give to all the people of the world knowledge of your salvation; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

LIGHTING THE ADVENT WREATH

“O Come, O Come, Emmanuel”

LBW#34 vs 1

The musical score is written on four staves in G major (one sharp). The melody is simple and repetitive, with lyrics written below the notes. The lyrics are: "Oh, come, oh, come, Emmanuel, and ransom captive Israel, that mourns in lonely exile here until the Son of God appear. Re-joice! Re-joice! Emmanuel shall come to you, O Israel." The word "Refrain" is written above the notes for "Re-joice! Re-joice!".

Oh, come, oh, come, Em - man - u - el, and ran - som cap - tive
Is - ra - el, that mourns in lone - ly ex - ile here un - til the Son of God ap - pear. Refrain Re - joi - ce! Re - joi - ce!
Em - man - u - el shall come to you, O Is - ra - el.

At every beginning there is a yearning for the one who is coming.
O Emmanuel, Prepare us for your coming.

We gather together to get ready for what? Only heaven knows.
O Emmanuel, Prepare us for your coming.

We wait for the day when God will create a prevailing peace on the earth, and natural-born enemies turn into newborn friends.
O Emmanuel, Prepare us for your coming.

We get ready for God to come close by laying our lives open to Jesus, asking him to sort through all our mixed motives.
O Emmanuel, Prepare us for your coming.

Jesus, we welcome your presence now with the lighting of these candles, whose flames bring warmth to winter and fill this place with the glow of hope. Amen.

Light two candles.

“O Come, O Come, Emmanuel”

4 Oh, come, blest Day-spring, come and cheer our spir - its by your ad - vent here; dis - perse the gloom - y clouds of night, and death's dark shad - ows put to flight. Re - joice! Re - joice!
Em - man - u - el shall come to you, O Is - ra - el.

FIRST READING

Malachi 3:1-4

The Lord announces a covenant with Israel. A messenger like Malachi (his name means “my messenger”) shall prepare the way for the coming of the Lord by purifying and refining God’s people, as silver and gold are refined.

¹See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight—indeed, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts. ²But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears?

For he is like a refiner’s fire and like fullers’ soap; ³he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the LORD in righteousness. ⁴Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in former years. The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

1 Blessed be the God of Is - ra - el who comes to set us free
 2 With prom - ised mer - cy will God still the cov - e - nant re - call,
 3 My child, as proph - et of the Lord you will pre - pare the way, and rais - es up new hope for us: a Branch from Da - vid's tree.

 the oath once sworn to A - bra - ham, from foes to save us all;
 to tell God's peo - ple they are saved from sin's e - ter - nal sway.

So have the proph - ets long de - clared that with a might - y arm that we might wor - ship with - out fear and of - fer lives of praise,
 Then shall God's mer - cy from on high shine forth and nev - er cease

God would turn back our en - e - mies and all who wish us harm.
 in ho - li - ness and righ - teous - ness to leave God all our days.
 to drive a - way the gloom of death and lead us in - to peace.

SECOND READING

Philippians 1:3-11

The apostle Paul was the pastor of many new churches. He writes in this letter about his joy to be in partnership with the Christians of Philippi. Listen to how tender-hearted Paul, sometimes a stern preacher, is with his friends as he encourages them to grow in love and knowledge.

³I thank my God every time I remember you, ⁴constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you, ⁵because of your sharing in the gospel from the first day until now. ⁶I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ. ⁷It is right for me to think this way about all of you, because you hold me in your heart, for all of you share in God's grace with me, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel. ⁸For God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the compassion of Christ Jesus. ⁹And this is my prayer, that your love may overflow more and more with knowledge and full insight ¹⁰to help you to determine what is best, so that in the day of Christ you may be pure and blameless, ¹¹having produced the harvest of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Luke 3:1-6

The holy gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

John the Baptist is a herald of the saving Lord, whose way is prepared by “repentance for the forgiveness of sins.” As we hear the careful record of human leaders, we sense the spectrum of political and religious authority that will be challenged by this coming Lord.

¹In the fifteenth year of the reign of Emperor Tiberius, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was ruler of Galilee, and his brother Philip ruler of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias ruler of Abilene, ²during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness. ³He went into all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, ⁴as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah, “The voice of one crying out in the wilderness:

‘Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

⁵Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth; ⁶and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.’”

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

WELCOME to the Season of Advent which continues through the weekend of December 22-23. Advent is about the “coming days”. God’s people have always lived in great expectation, but that expectation finds specific, repeated enunciation in the lectionary readings for these four weekends.

The ancients anticipated a “righteous Branch to spring up for David”. We eagerly await the coming days: another Christmas celebration, a second coming, and the advent of our Lord in word and supper. Attend the service of your choice during the four weekends of Advent.

Just in time for your holiday shopping!!

You can help Immanuel Church by linking your Amazon account to our Church ID. We receive 0.5% proceeds from your purchases. Start with this link: <https://smile.amazon.com/ch/52-0729004> then after confirming Immanuel as the Charitable Organization to receive the proceeds, you will then be directed to the ‘regular’ Amazon webpage. Happy Shopping!

Join us for festive decorations and fellowship!

GERMAN LANGUAGE CHRISTMAS SERVICE

Join us on Saturday, December 15th, at 3pm at Calvary Lutheran Church 16151 Old Frederick Road, Mt. Airy. Worship with us in German. Sing favorite German carols. Listen to our brass choir. Stay for a coffee hour with German goodies. An offering will be gathered for ELCA World Hunger Relief.

Longest Night Christmas Service Society often portrays Christmas as a time to celebrate and a time when we are expected to be happy. Christmas is not always a happy time. In fact, for some, it can be a very painful time of the year ~ those who are reminded of personal loss, broken relationships or times of struggle. Immanuel will host a special ‘Longest Night’ Christmas Service along with Trinity UCC on Friday, December 21st, the longest night of the year, beginning at 7pm, in the auditorium. Consider attending this small, informal Christmas service of Holy Communion and Hope.
