Third Sunday of Advent

Children’s Christmas Program

A SPECIAL WELCOME TO OUR GUESTS!

Welcome! We invite you to become a part of the ministry at Immanuel.

For more information about the church and how to get involved, speak with the pastor following the service.

Please sign the Red Pad found at each center row pew. The Head Usher can assist you at any time during the service.

Sunday School classes are after the Sunday service for children 2 years old through adult. Please stop by while you are here!

INDIVIDUAL PRAYER AND HEALING:

Pastor Charlie offers individual prayer at the communion rail, with anointing and laying of hands for healing for those who desire it, 20 minutes before each service.

DISTRIBUTION OF HOLY COMMUNION:

Our hope is that you feel welcome at the Lord's Table. We welcome all baptized Christians who proclaim with us the crucified and risen Christ's real presence as he gives us his body and blood as food and drink. Grape juice and gluten free wafers are also available, please let the Communion assistants know of this dietary preference. The pastor also offers a pastoral blessing at the Communion Rail for those who do not wish to receive Communion.

FAMILIES WITH YOUNG CHILDREN: We are glad you are here!

- Activity bags are in back to help little ones keep themselves occupied.
- The Oak Tree Room and the Pre-School Room are available for nursing mothers and others with small children and allow you to listen to the service.
- Baby Sunday School is offered for little ones accompanied by an adult most Sundays during worship (after children's sermon and return before Communion).

LIGHTING THE CHRISTMAS TREE

God our Creator, we praise you for this Christmas tree.

It is a sign of your everlasting, evergreen presence.

It is a sign of the reign of heaven, sheltering the creatures of the earth under its open arms.

It is a sign of the cross, shining with the light of your grace and mercy.

Gracious God, let your blessing come upon us as we illumine this tree.

Send us your Son, the tender shoot of Jesse, who brings us light and life.

May all who stand in its light eagerly welcome the true Light which never fades. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray. A brief silence is kept before the prayer.

Stir up the wills of your faithful people, Lord God, and open our ears to the preaching of John, that, rejoicing in your salvation, we may bring forth the fruits of repentance; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

LIGHTING THE ADVENT WREATH

“O Come, O Come, Emmanuel”

LBW#34 vs 1

The musical score is written on four staves in G major (one sharp). The melody is simple and repetitive, with lyrics written below the notes. The first line of music is followed by the lyrics "Oh, come, oh, come, Em - man - u - el, and ran - som cap - tive". The second line of music is followed by "Is - ra - el, that mourns in lone - ly ex - ile here". The third line of music is followed by "un - til the Son of God ap - pear. Re - jice! Re - jice!". The fourth line of music is followed by "Em - man - u - el shall come to you, O Is - ra - el." The word "Refrain" is written above the third line of music.

Text: Psalterium Cantionum Catholicarum, Köln, 1710; tr. John M. Neale, 1818–1866, alt.
Music: VENI, EMMANUEL. French processional, 15th cent.

At every beginning there is a yearning for the one who is coming.
O Emmanuel, Open us up to your coming.

We gather together to allow our deeply held hopes to be reshaped by God's promises. O Emmanuel, Open us up to your coming.

We wait for the day when God will make for us a future that is no longer predicated on our fear. O Emmanuel, Open us up to your coming.

We find a new receptivity within us that desires God's will over our own will and relies on God's justice and mercy to accomplish it.
O Emmanuel, Open us up to your coming.

Jesus, we welcome your presence now with the lighting of these candles, whose flames bring warmth to winter and fill this place with the glow of hope. Amen.

Light three candles.

"O Come, O Come, Emmanuel"

LBW#34 vs 3

3 Oh, come, strong Branch of Jes - se, free your own from Sa - tan's tyr - an - ny; from depths of hell your peo - ple save and give them vic - t'ry o'er the grave. Re-joyce! Re - joyce!
Em-man - u - el shall come to you, O Is - ra - el.

The musical score is written on four staves in G major (one sharp). The melody is simple and repetitive, with lyrics written below the notes. The first staff is the title. The second staff begins with a '3' indicating a triplet. The third staff has a 'Refrain' label above it. The fourth staff ends with a double bar line.

CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

FIRST READING

Isaiah 12:2-6

The prophet calls us to praise and to put our trust in the God who saves us, and to declare God's mighty deeds to all nations on earth.

²Surely God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid, for the Lord GOD is my strength and my might; he has become my salvation.

³With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation. ⁴And you will say in that day: Give thanks to the LORD, call on his name; make known his deeds among the nations; proclaim that his name is exalted.

⁵Sing praises to the LORD, for he has done gloriously; let this be known in all the earth. ⁶Shout aloud and sing for joy, O royal Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

Philippians 4:4-7

Despite being in prison, Paul is remarkably upbeat as he writes this letter. Here, he urges his friends in Philippi to trust God with all their worries and concerns, with the hope they will experience God's joy and peace.

⁴Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. ⁵Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. ⁶Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. ⁷And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go?

You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia.

The holy gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

John the Baptist heralds the mighty one “who is coming.” John teaches that preparation for God’s reign is not a matter of identity but of bearing fruits of merciful justice, radical generosity, and vocational integrity.

⁷John said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? ⁸Bear fruits worthy of repentance. Do not begin to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our ancestor’; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. ⁹Even now the ax is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.”

¹⁰And the crowds asked him, “What then should we do?” ¹¹In reply he said to them, “Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise.” ¹²Even tax collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, “Teacher, what should we do?”

¹³He said to them, “Collect no more than the amount prescribed for you.”

¹⁴Soldiers also asked him, “And we, what should we do?” He said to them, “Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages.”

¹⁵As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, ¹⁶John answered all of them by saying, “I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. ¹⁷His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.”

¹⁸So, with many other exhortations, he proclaimed the good news to the people.

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

WELCOME to the Third Weekend of Advent which will continue next weekend, December 22-23. Advent is about the “coming days”. The presence of the Lord “in your midst” in the wonder of the holy supper is cause for singing! The nearness of the Lord in prayer, in every circumstance, is cause for rejoicing. The coming of one ‘more powerful’ than John, the Baptist, even with his winnowing fork in his hand, is good news ~ and cause for exultation ~ for us who are being saved. Great joy is the tone for the Third Weekend of Advent.

New Cooperative Joint Ministry!

Immanuel is one of at least three churches taking part in a new joint youth ministry group! Here are some upcoming activities. Everyone in the congregation is invited to attend! Please take advantage of these great events so we continue to plan more!

Sunday, December 16th is Christmas Caroling with St. Paul's Church. Currently have 6 stops scheduled, including LongView Nursing Home. Meet at St Paul's parking lot at 2:30pm to follow in your cars. After caroling (approx. 6pm), we will enjoy a potluck meal, please bring a dish to share if you are attending. *Please note: stops and times are subject to change.

2019: Sunday, January 6th (weather date 1/13), from 2-4pm is our 2-hour Snow Tubing adventure at Liberty! Contact Angie Eckhardt for more information and to RSVP. Email to Angie_Eckhardt@verizon.net or call/text 410-215-8894.

Longest Night Christmas Service Society often portrays Christmas as a time to celebrate and a time when we are expected to be happy. Christmas is not always a happy time. In fact, for some, it can be a very painful time of the year ~ those who are reminded of personal loss, broken relationships or times of struggle. Immanuel will host a special ‘Longest Night’ Christmas Service along with Trinity UCC on Friday, December 21st, the longest night of the year, beginning at 7pm, in the auditorium. Consider attending this small, informal Christmas service of Holy Communion and Hope.

Weather Cancellation Policy @ Immanuel

In order to care for the safety of each member of the congregation, weather conditions and circumstances may establish the need to cancel worship services and/or activities at Immanuel. The decision to cancel activities will be made by a review of the NOAA.gov website, in consultation with the Council President and Pastor and (optionally) the executive committee.

Every attempt will be made to announce any decision to cancel services and/or activities at least 2 hours prior to such activities through the following official means:

- Pastor Charlie’s weekly email list
- Immanuel’s Office Phone Recorded Message (410-374-4463)
- Immanuel’s Facebook page
(www.facebook.com/immanuellutheranccmd)
- Immanuel’s Web site (www.immanuellutheranccmd.org)
- WBAL Ch. 11 television closure site

When possible, an alternative time will be scheduled and announced.

Taken from Pastor Charlie's message in the December newsletter:

We demonstrate our caring heart by reaching out to our neighbors in many ways with gifts of food, warm clothing, and other necessities. Perhaps the most important gift we can offer during this season of the year is the gift of God's perfect love all wrapped up in Jesus, the babe of Bethlehem.

Of course, God wants us to be sharing our faith with others and inviting others to worship throughout the year. But this is the time when non-churchgoers are most likely to accept an invitation. As you think about whom you might invite, I encourage you to cast a wide net that includes friends and family, neighbors and co-workers, and people you interact with where you buy your groceries, get your hair cut, stop for lunch or coffee.

Every invitation to come to church is more likely to succeed when you are not just inviting people but praying for them as well. Try writing a list of people you want to invite (you don't have to know their names—God already does!) and take a few minutes each day to pray for them before you invite them. Ask God to bless them, to open their hearts to receive your invitation, and to provide an opportunity for you to extend the invitation. Once you have invited them, continue to pray each day for the Holy Spirit to work through your invitation to draw them closer to God and to the church.

Expect God to answer your prayers and bring them to church on Christmas Eve. Be prepared to welcome them warmly, as well as other newcomers whom God may send, and follow up with them as you are able.
