A SPECIAL WELCOME TO OUR GUESTS!

Welcome! We invite you to become a part of the ministry at Immanuel.

For more information about the church and how to get involved, speak with the pastor following the service.

Please sign the Red Pad found at each center row pew. The Head Usher can assist you at any time during the service.

Sunday School classes are after the Sunday service for children 2 years old through adult. Please stop by while you are here!

INDIVIDUAL PRAYER AND HEALING:

Pastor Charlie offers individual prayer at the communion rail, with anointing and laying of hands for healing for those who desire it, 20 minutes before each service.

DISTRIBUTION OF HOLY COMMUNION:

Our hope is that you feel welcome at the Lord's Table. We welcome all baptized Christians who proclaim with us the crucified and risen Christ's real presence as he gives us his body and blood as food and drink. Grape juice and gluten free wafers are also available, please let the Communion assistants know of this dietary preference. The pastor also offers a pastoral blessing at the Communion Rail for those who do not wish to receive Communion.

FAMILIES WITH YOUNG CHILDREN: We are glad you are here!

- Activity bags are in back to help little ones keep themselves occupied.
- The Oak Tree Room and the Pre-School Room are available for nursing mothers and others with small children and allow you to listen to the service.
- Baby Sunday School is offered for little ones accompanied by an adult most Sundays during worship (after children's sermon and return before Communion).

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray. A brief silence is kept before the prayer.

A brief silence is kept before the prayer.

Stir up your power, Lord Christ, and come. With your abundant grace and might, free us from the sin that binds us, that we may receive you in joy and serve you always, for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

LIGHTING THE ADVENT WREATH

“O Come, O Come, Emmanuel”

LBW#34 vs 1

The musical score is written on four staves in G major (one sharp). The melody is simple and repetitive, with lyrics written below the notes. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The lyrics are: "1 Oh, come, oh, come, Em-man - u - el, and ran-som cap-tive". The second staff continues: "Is - ra - el, that mourns in lone - ly ex - ile here". The third staff includes a "Refrain" section: "un - til the Son of God ap - pear. Re-joyce! Re - joyce!". The fourth staff concludes: "Em-man - u - el shall come to you, O Is - ra - el." The piece ends with a double bar line.

Text: Psalterium Cantionum Catholicarum, Köln, 1710; tr. John M. Neale, 1818–1866, alt.
Music: VENI, EMMANUEL. French processional, 15th cent.

At every beginning there is a yearning for the one who is coming.
O Emmanuel, Surprise us by your coming.

We gather together to let God’s good news reorient our lives.
O Emmanuel, Surprise us by your coming.

We wait for the day when all the world will see the sign that God is with us. O Emmanuel, Surprise us by your coming.

We are shocked by how God comes close, even at this very moment.
O Emmanuel, Surprise us by your coming.

Jesus, we welcome your presence now with the lighting of these candles, whose flames bring warmth to winter and fill this place with the glow of hope. Amen.

Light all four candles.

“O Come, O Come, Emmanuel”

LBW#34 vs 5

5 Oh, come, O Key of Da - vid, come, and o - pen wide our heav'n - ly home; make safe the way that leads on high, and close the path to mis - er - y. Refrain Re-joice! Re - joice!
Em-man - u - el shall come to you, O Is - ra - el.

FIRST READING

Micah 5:2-5a

The prophet Micah, having pronounced judgment upon Judah, speaks of a future shepherd-king who, like David, will come from the small town of Bethlehem. (Ephrathah refers to the area around Bethlehem.) This king will restore Israel and bring peace. New Testament writers understood this passage to be referring to Jesus.

<sup>2</sup>But you, O Bethlehem of Ephrathah, who are one of the little clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to rule in Israel, whose origin is from of old, from ancient days.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in labor has brought forth; then the rest of his kindred shall return to the people of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>And he shall stand and feed his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God.

And they shall live secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth; <sup>5a</sup>and he shall be the one of peace.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

“My Soul Proclaims Your Greatness”

ELW #251

1 My soul pro-claims your great-ness, Lord; I sing my Sav - ior's praise!
2 To all who live in ho - ly fear your mer-cy ev - er flows.
3 To Is - ra - el, your ser - vant blest, your help is ev - er sure;

You looked up - on my low - li - ness, and I am full of grace.
With might - y arm you dash the proud, their schem-ing hearts ex - pose.
the prom-ise to our par-ents made their chil - dren will se - cure.

Now ev - 'ry land and ev - 'ry age this bless-ing shall pro - claim—
The ruth-less you have cast a - side, the low-ly throned in - stead;
Sing glo - ry to the Ho - ly One, give hon - or to the Word,

SECOND READING

Hebrews 10:5-10

The author of Hebrews uses the image of religious sacrifice to convey the significance of Christ's coming. Through obedient acceptance of God's will, Christ allows his own body to become the greatest sacrifice of all, one through which we are made a holy people.

<sup>5</sup>Consequently, when Christ came into the world, he said,

“Sacrifices and offerings you have not desired, but a body you have prepared for me; <sup>6</sup>in burnt offerings and sin offerings you have taken no pleasure.

<sup>7</sup>Then I said, ‘See, God, I have come to do your will, O God’
(in the scroll of the book it is written of me).”

<sup>8</sup>When he said above, “You have neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings” (these are offered according to the law), <sup>9</sup>then he added, “See, I have come to do your will.” He abolishes the first in order to establish the second. <sup>10</sup>And it is by God's will that we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Luke 1:39-45

The holy gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

We are presented with Elizabeth, John's mother, and Mary, the mother of Jesus, two women filled with the Holy Spirit and with faith. In Elizabeth's inspired greeting and Mary's song of praise we hear of a saving God who remembers, scatters, lifts up, and fulfills all things.

<sup>39</sup>In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country, <sup>40</sup>where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. <sup>41</sup>When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit <sup>42</sup>and exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. <sup>43</sup>And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me? <sup>44</sup>For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy. <sup>45</sup>And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord."

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

WELCOME to the Fourth and final Weekend of Advent. Cradle and cross are inextricably connected on the Fourth Weekend of Advent. Between a lovely tribute to the town of Bethlehem and the blessed virgin Mary's magnificent song of praise, the letter to the Hebrews reminds us, in no certain terms, that Christ's advent is for "the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all". It is the kind of tension in which the church always lives as when in the holy communion – with high delight – "we proclaim the Lord's death".

Weather Cancellation Policy @ Immanuel

In order to care for the safety of each member of the congregation, weather conditions and circumstances may establish the need to cancel worship services and/or activities at Immanuel. The decision to cancel activities will be made by a review of the NOAA.gov website, in consultation with the Council President and Pastor and (optionally) the executive committee.

Every attempt will be made to announce any decision to cancel services and/or activities at least 2 hours prior to such activities through the following official means:

- Pastor Charlie's weekly email list
- Immanuel's Office Phone Recorded Message (410-374-4463)
- Immanuel's Facebook page (www.facebook.com/immanuelutheranccmd)
- Immanuel's Web site (www.immanuelutheranccmd.org)
- WBAL Ch. 11 television closure site

When possible, an alternative time will be scheduled and announced.

Taken from Pastor Charlie's message in the December newsletter:

We demonstrate our caring heart by reaching out to our neighbors in many ways with gifts of food, warm clothing, and other necessities. Perhaps the most important gift we can offer during this season of the year is the gift of God's perfect love all wrapped up in Jesus, the babe of Bethlehem.

Of course, God wants us to be sharing our faith with others and inviting others to worship throughout the year. But this is the time when non-churchgoers are most likely to accept an invitation. As you think about whom you might invite, I encourage you to cast a wide net that includes friends and family, neighbors and co-workers, and people you interact with where you buy your groceries, get your hair cut, stop for lunch or coffee.

Every invitation to come to church is more likely to succeed when you are not just inviting people but praying for them as well. Try writing a list of people you want to invite (you don't have to know their names—God already does!) and take a few minutes each day to pray for them before you invite them. Ask God to bless them, to open their hearts to receive your invitation, and to provide an opportunity for you to extend the invitation. Once you have invited them, continue to pray each day for the Holy Spirit to work through your invitation to draw them closer to God and to the church.

Expect God to answer your prayers and bring them to church on Christmas Eve. Be prepared to welcome them warmly, as well as other newcomers whom God may send, and follow up with them as you are able.
