DISTRIBUTION OF HOLY COMMUNION

Our hope is that you feel welcome at the Lord's Table. We welcome all baptized Christians who proclaim with us the crucified and risen Christ's real presence as he gives us his body and blood as food and drink. Grape juice and gluten free wafers are also available, please let the Communion assistants know of this dietary preference. The pastor also offers a pastoral blessing at the Communion Rail for those who do not wish to receive Communion.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray. A brief silence is kept before the prayer.

Blessed Lord God, you have caused the holy scriptures to be written for the nourishment of your people. Grant that we may hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that, comforted by your promises, we may embrace and forever hold fast to the hope of eternal life, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

FIRST READING

Nehemiah 8:1-3, 5-6, 8-10

The exiles have returned and rebuilt Jerusalem. Now Ezra, the priest, reads the law of Moses to them in the public square. When they hear it, they weep for their sins and for the long years in exile, but Ezra reminds them that the joy of the Lord is their strength.

¹All the people [of Israel] gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had given to Israel. ²Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month. ³He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. ⁵And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. ⁶Then Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people answered, "Amen, Amen," lifting up their hands. Then they bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground. ⁸So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

⁹And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep." For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. ¹⁰Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our LORD; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

⁷The teaching of the LORD is perfect and revives the soul;
the testimony of the LORD is sure and gives wisdom to the simple.

⁸The statutes of the LORD are just and rejoice the heart;
the commandment of the LORD is clear and gives light to the eyes.

⁹The fear of the LORD is clean and endures forever;
the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

¹⁰More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold, sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.

¹¹By them also is your servant enlightened, and in keeping them there is great reward.

¹²Who can detect one's own offenses? Cleanse me from my secret faults.

¹³Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins; let them not get dominion over me;
then shall I be whole and sound, and innocent of a great offense.

¹⁴Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, O LORD, my strength and my redeemer.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 12:12-31a

The apostle and pastor Paul uses the metaphor of the human body to describe how intimately connected we are in the church. For this struggling congregation in Corinth, Paul delivers a vital message of unity that is a mark of the church today.

¹²For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

¹⁴Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. ¹⁵If the foot would say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁶And if the ear would say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁷If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? ¹⁸But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. ¹⁹If all were a single member, where would the body be? ²⁰As it is, there are many members, yet one body. ²¹The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you,” nor again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.” ²²On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, ²³and those members of the body that we think less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; ²⁴whereas our more respectable members do not need this.

But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member, ²⁵that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. ²⁶If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.

²⁷Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. ²⁸And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. ²⁹Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? ³⁰Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret?

^{31a}But strive for the greater gifts.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Luke 4:14-21

The holy gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Near the beginning of Jesus' public ministry, he visits his hometown of Nazareth. In the words of Isaiah, he states and claims his identity, purpose, and mission.

¹⁴Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. ¹⁵He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

¹⁶When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, ¹⁷and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

^{18c}“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor.

He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, ¹⁹to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.”

²⁰And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. ²¹Then he began to say to them, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.”

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Come to Longview Nursing Home this afternoon! Pastor Charlie is leading worship service this afternoon, January 27th at 1:30pm. Church members are welcome to attend and help out.

The Mutual Ministry Committee has assumed the responsibility to coordinate the development of a strategic church safety and security plan. On January 16, 2019, we met with two Officers from the Manchester Police Department who toured our facilities and made security recommendations for us to consider.

Congregational presentations to review our plans are scheduled on February 16th and 17th following each service. (Inclement weather reschedule date will be Feb 23-24.)

In the interim, we will lock all outside doors to the church building at the beginning of the scheduled services. The Head Usher will respond to individuals that come to the front door after this time. Late congregants will be admitted, but the Police encouraged us to call them if we encounter any unauthorized or suspicious individuals seeking entry.

NEXT WEEKEND, Feb 2nd and 3rd
Special Offering collected for Carroll Lutheran School

MONTHLY MISSION SPECIAL OFFERING FOR FEBRUARY:

Carroll Lutheran School (CLS) is our baby! It began as a dream shared by the congregations of our Westminster Conference and opened its doors in September 2000. Eighteen years later CLS is still owned by the Conference congregations, including Immanuel, as an extension of our ministry to families in Carroll County.

CLS is among the best schools in Carroll County and provides a quality education where the love of Christ sets the tone to develop, cultivate, and nurture all aspects of learning, including spiritual, academic and social. CLS provides special scholarship support for members of the Westminster Conference congregations, so that families will be able to afford to send their children. CLS is experiencing financial challenges right now, and needs to boost enrollment and to receive financial support from the community and especially from Immanuel and other Conference congregations.

Please spread the word about CLS to families with school age children, and please give generously to CLS through this monthly mission offering.

CLS's mission is "Exceptional Education, Formed in Faith."

Let us help to ensure that CLS will continue to carry out its mission for many years to come!

Note: Coffee Hour will be on Feb 10th after Immanuel's Anniversary Sunday service with the Bishop.

Christ In Our Home (for January, February and March) and Our Daily Bread (for December, January and February) devotionals are still available in the tiered display at the stairway entrance.

Copies are nearly gone, stop by and get your today!

PASTOR CHARLIE'S JANUARY BIBLE CHALLENGE – WATER

Our Bible Challenge for January comes as a personal request from a member of Immanuel who works with water and asked me for information about what the Bible says about water. Water is a theme that runs throughout the Bible, appearing in more than 600 verses. Join us as we follow the theme of water through the Bible, from beginning to end.

The online Bible Study will continue with daily comments from Pastor Charlie on Facebook. Email him at pastorc@ielcmd.org if you would like to join this private group, or if you would like to receive copies via email of the comments he posts there for each day.

LEAD focus groups with Sunday School families and staff:

During the month of January, the LEAD team is meeting with small groups and individuals within the congregation. These conversations will center on Immanuel's values, mission, and relationship with the neighborhood, by looking deeper at the results of congregational survey completed in October.

The Sunday School parents and grandparents are invited to meet with the LEAD team on Sunday February 3rd at 10:30am in the Social Hall. The Sunday School staff will follow with a meeting at 11:15am.

The LEAD team looks forward to your input as we work together to discern God's plan for our future.

On Saturday, February 2nd, we will host our annual Italian dinner starting at 5:30pm. Youth are needed to serve as waiters and waitresses as well as hosts. Please RSVP to confirm you can participate. Tickets will be $5 each as donation. Signup sheets are in the back of the sanctuary.

Keeping in Touch (KIT) Ministry

Admin Team: Jo Fleck, Jeanne Swain, Matthew Rooney

Working with Pastor Charlie, KIT is a visitation group that reaches out beyond our 4 walls to maintain contact with others. The group connects with those in our congregation who are unable, or frequently unable, to attend worship, or participate in church events and activities.

Last year, KIT reached out on 55 different occasions, either through a visitation, a phone call, or a written card.

2019 brings new goals for KIT as we broaden this ministries vision and impact within Immanuel. We will continue to visit members of Immanuel who may not be able to worship with us, but KIT will now also reach out to those whom we have not seen in a while.

For this reason, the KIT administration team is looking for eager volunteers to visit or contact designated members of Immanuel. If you would like to find out more about this ministry, please contact the KIT admin team.

The stand outside of the church office holds a Book Exchange and Painted Rocks. Feel free to take one or leave one. We hope to spread kindness through the painted rocks! Most of the rocks were painted during our 'Kids Feeding Kids' summer program.

Take a Rock. Hide the rock. When people find it, they can keep it to be inspired every time they see it or they can hide it again for someone else to find. Spread Kindness. ☺

Social Ministry is serving 'Table of Grace' on Tuesday, January 29th. Please join us anytime you can (between 10 and 2) as we make lunch, serve food to the clients and clean up.

NOTE:

No 11am Bible Study next Tuesday, Pastor will be helping at Grace Lutheran Church.*
